

I strongly request that you do not change the rules for media ownership. I am very concerned that permitting more ownership of radio and Tv stations by less people will result in ALL of us having more biased information, less choice of programming and much more likelihood of becoming prejudiced. Diversity of ideas makes us strong.